Conflict of Interest

Means any situation in which a provider or an employee has an actual or potential interest that may, in rendering a financial service to a client:

- Influence the objective exercise of his, her or its obligations to a client; or
- Prevent a provider or employee from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service, or from acting in the interests of a client, including, but not limited to:
 - A financial interest.
 - An ownership interest.
 - Any relationship with a third party.

Financial Interest

Means any cash, cash equivalent, voucher, gift, service, advantage, benefit, discount, domestic or foreign travel, hospitality, accommodation, training, sponsorship, other incentive or valuable consideration, other than -

- An ownership interest.
- Training, that is not exclusively available to a selected group of providers or employees, on:
 - Products and legal matters relating to those products.
 - General financial industry information.
 - Specialised technological systems of a third party necessary for the rendering of a financial service; but excluding travel and accommodation associated with that training.

Immaterial Financial Interest

Means any financial interest with a determinable monetary value, the aggregate of which does not exceed R1 000 in any calendar year from the same third party in that calendar year received by -

- An employee for that employee's direct Benefit.
- A provider, who for its Benefit or that of some or all of its employees, aggregates the immaterial financial interest paid to its employees.

Ownership Interest

Means –

- Any equity or proprietary interest, for which fair value was paid by the owner at the time of the acquisition, other than equity or a proprietary interest held as an approved nominee on behalf of another person; and

- Another provider.
- An associate of a product supplier or a provider.
- A distribution channels.
- Any person who in terms of an agreement or arrangement with a person referred to in the paragraphs above provides a financial interest to a provider or its employees.

3. General Disclosure Requirements

- 3.1 Employees must communicate and disclose any conflict of interest that could impair or be perceived to impair the employee's ability to act with integrity or objectivity in his or her role at Kaelo.
- 3.2 Disclosures must be made on the prescribed form set out in Annexure two to this Policy.
- 3.3 Employees must submit their disclosures to their particular Line Manager who must forward the disclosures to their Exco member who will consider the disclosures and decide on their permissibility.
- 3.4 Any conflict of interest that could potentially affect a client negatively, once assessed by a Line Manager or Exco member, must at the earliest reasonable opportunity be disclosed to a client, including:
 - The measures taken, in accordance with this Conflict of Interest Policy to avoid or mitigate the conflict.
 - Any ownership interest or financial interest, other than an immaterial financial interest, that Kaelo or its employees may be or become eligible for.
 - The nature of any relationship or arrangement with a third party that gives rise to a conflict of interest, in sufficient detail to a client to enable the client to understand the exact nature of the relationship or arrangement and the conflict of interest.
- 3.5 Kaelo must inform its clients of the existence of this Conflict of Interest Management Policy and how it may be accessed.

4. Fees, Commissions and Structures

4.1 Kaelo, its associates or employees may only receive or offer the following financial interest from or to a third party –

- Commission authorised under the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 52 of 1998) or the Short-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 53 of 1998) and amendments thereof.
- Fees authorised under the aforementioned if those fees are reasonably commensurate to a service being rendered.
- Fees for the rendering of a financial service in respect of which commission referred to in subparagraph (a) or (b) or (c) is not paid, if those fees –
 - Are specifically agreed to by a client in writing; and
 - May be stopped at the discretion of that client.
 - Fees for the rendering of a service to a third party, which fees are reasonably commensurate to the services being rendered.
 - Subject to any other law, an immaterial financial interest; and
 - A financial interest, for which a consideration, fair value or remuneration that is reasonably commensurate to the value of the financial interest, is paid by that provider or employee at the time of receipt thereof.

4.2 Kaelo may not offer any financial interest to an employee for –

- Giving preference to only the quantity of business secured for the FSP to the exclusion of the quality of the service rendered to clients; or
- Giving preference to a specific product supplier, where an employee may recommend more than one product supplier to a client; or
- Giving preference to a specific product of a product supplier, where an employee may recommend more than one product of that product supplier to a client.

4.3 Mission and target structures are constantly being updated to comply with the above requirements so as to ensure that clients receive unbiased advice when financial services are rendered in order to allow for a free and fair purchasing decision.

4.4 Commission will not be paid solely on any criteria referred to above as factors such as quality and compliance will be taken into account and weighted accordingly.

5. Mechanisms for Identification of Conflicts of Interest

5.1 A conflict of interest may arise out of the employee's relationship with a third party, or from an ownership interest the employee has with a third party, or from a financial interest the employee has or may have in a third party.

5.2 A financial interest includes:

- cash,
- a cash equivalent,
- a voucher,
- a gift,
- a service,
- an advantage,
- a benefit,
- a discount,
- domestic or foreign travel,
- hospitality,
- accommodation,
- sponsorship,
- any other incentive, or
- valuable consideration.

5.3 The receipt or the offer of such is prohibited where this interferes with or may interfere with the employee's ability to render a financial service to a client in a fair, unbiased or objective manner.

5.4 The following, when directed to the general public, are not deemed to be areas in which conflicts of interest will be created.

- Advertising and Marketing or
- Brand awareness and brand-building activities.

Advertising includes any communication (written, printed, electronic or oral) which is directed to the general public or any section thereof, or to any client on request, which is intended primarily to call attention to the marketing or promotion of financial services offered by Kaelo and which does not purport to provide detailed information regarding any such financial services.

Marketing means the rendering of financial services by way of telephone, internet, media insert, direct mail or electronic mail but excluding advertisements not containing transaction requirements.

Brand awareness and building are characterised by:

- Primarily aimed at drawing attention to the Kaelo products and services – whilst other activities may take place around the brand building.
- Generality of application – in other words, promotional activity is undertaken with a group of business partners, service providers or customers in mind – not with an individual.

- Planned activity – brand building is not random but is a planned activity, is approved by senior management and is therefore not of a once-off nature.

5.5 The following, when directed to employees, are not deemed to be areas in which conflicts of interest will be created:

- Training (but excluding travel and accommodation associated with the training),
- Corporate social responsibility (CSI) activity,
- Internal staff (employee) recognition awards, or
- Enterprise development.

Training (excluding the travel and accommodation associated with the training): It is a legislative imperative for a product supplier to train its staff and its business partners, including intermediaries, on the products and services of the product supplier. It is also a logical and ethical imperative to conduct training as this reduces the risk of mis-selling and the churn necessarily attendant upon mis-selling. Training helps to protect the interests of Policyholders by assisting employees, intermediaries and business partners in selling products that are appropriate to the needs of the Policyholder.

Training can, and must, be undertaken with employees, intermediaries and with business partners, where relevant. Normal business courtesies associated with the training are permissible, however, any travel or accommodation associated with the training is not permitted. Delegates are required to get to the training venue at their own cost and are required to pay for their own accommodation.

Normal business courtesy includes the provision of refreshments, snacks, food and beverages for delegates.

Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSI”): National legislation, such as BBBEE, Employment Equity and related imperatives require Kaelo to invest in corporate social responsibility initiatives. Kaelo views this as part of their commitment to being a responsible corporate citizen. Where such investments are made these will not constitute a breach of this Policy.

Internal staff (employee) recognition awards: Kaelo strives to develop a high-performance culture and therefore considers it important that individual performance is recognized and rewarded based upon quantitative and qualitative criteria which are regularly reviewed by senior management to ensure appropriateness and effectiveness.

The recognition of staff does not constitute a conflict of interest since the recognition is unrelated to the provision of a service to a client.

- 5.6 To adequately identify conflicts of interest, Kaelo undertakes to use its best efforts to identify all real and potential conflicts in a timeous manner by:
- Making each employee individually responsible for identifying specific instances of conflict of interest within his or her sphere of activity and requiring him or her to notify their Line Manager immediately of any conflicts they become aware of.
 - Maintaining a Gift Register.
- 5.7 Any internal conflict of interest that is identified will be disclosed to the client in a manner that is easy to understand.
- 5.8 In the event that it is not entirely clear that a conflict of interest exists, the employee with the potential conflict shall disclose this potential conflict of interest to his or her Line Manager or Exco member for a determination. Such determination will be documented.
- 5.9 Payment and commission structures have been amended to ensure that the employee gives the client full disclosure and unbiased advice at all times.
- 5.10 Directors and Senior Management are required to declare any conflict of interest in terms of Corporate Governance requirements.
- 5.11 The giving or receiving of modest items of appreciation as part of an expression of business courtesy unrelated to a specific financial service or transaction is permitted subject to the giving or receiving of such business courtesies being recorded in a gift register.
- 5.12 The gift register is regularly reviewed to ensure that the nature and extent of business courtesies received or given do not create a climate in which Policyholders' interests are prejudiced.
- 5.13 It is necessary for an employee to record both the receipt and the giving of a gift/business courtesy.
- 5.14 An employee who has an interest in an FSP that transacts business with Kaelo needs to disclose this interest. The disclosure of the interest does not necessarily 'cure' the conflict and Kaelo may, at its discretion, require further steps from the employee.
- 5.15 The failure to accurately and timeously complete the gift register is an offence and could lead to dismissal.
- 5.16 All risks identified should ideally be avoided.
- 5.17 It is a condition of employment that all employees:
- Upon joining Kaelo, those who have an interest in any other business, must declare it to the Exco member.
 - May be required to cease any activity or sell any interests if the Exco member believes it to be in conflict with the interests of Kaelo or that it may negatively impact the ability of the employee to perform in accordance with his or her contract of employment.

Assign to Kaelo, without charge, all claims and rights to any copyright, inventions, improvements, improvements to inventions, photographs, writings and the like which may now or in the future vest with the employee in any work of the employee, arising out of or in the scope of employment with Kaelo.

- Grant Kaelo full rights to alter and adapt such work,
- At the request and expense of Kaelo, do all such further acts and sign such further documents as may be necessary for the purpose of confirming the vesting of any such copyrights, invention or improvement to an invention, photographs or writings in the name of Kaelo or its nominee.

6. Processes, Procedures and Internal Controls to Facilitate Compliance

- 6.1 Kaelo, has an in-house Compliance Department that will require that all gifts, conflicts of interest and conflict related risks be reported to the Compliance Department, in the prescribed format, as per the annexures of this document. The process will involve sending compliance the necessary completed documents to be captured on the central register that compliance will keep. Reporting must be done within a reasonable time period. The details can be sent to: compliance@kaelo.co.za
- 6.2 The Compliance Department will monitor adherence to this Policy and provide feedback to the Executive Committee and the Risk and Audit Committees

7. Consequences of Non-Compliance

- 7.1 If a conflict of interest arises and it is found that an employee has not disclosed the conflict, that employee will be charged under the Disciplinary Code.
- 7.2 Should a conflict arise, the level of the conflict will be assessed, and the client informed.
- 7.3 For any detected conflict of interest that may have negatively influenced the client, Kaelo will offer the client the option to cancel any product that may have been purchased with a full refund.

8. Type of and basis on which an employee will qualify for a Financial Interest

Kaelo or its employees may only accept or offer an immaterial financial interest if:

- The interest has a financial value of less than R1000.
- The total value of interests received/given from/to a single provider does not exceed R1000 per annum.
- This limit applies if the expense is for the direct Benefit of the employee or Kaelo. If the Benefit is for the direct benefit of Kaelo, however, then no further Benefit may be paid to Kaelo or any employee of Kaelo once the R1000 per annum limit is reached.
- It adheres to the requirements of this Policy as well as, any other Kaelo group related Policies.
- All immaterial financial interests are declared on a gift register (given and received).

- All real and perceived conflicts of interest are disclosed.

9. Compliance with this Policy

Kaelo views any non-compliance to this Policy as well as any non-compliance with its obligations in terms of legislation in a serious light. Any deliberate action by an employee to contravene the above will be subject to disciplinary action or termination of employment. All instances of non-compliance with this Policy will be included within the regular risk and compliance reporting processes.

Employees are requested to contact management should they have any questions in relation to this Policy.

It is the employee’s responsibility to contact management should he/she have any queries.

I, _____, (employee number/ ID number) hereby agree that I have read and understood the contents of this Policy and agree to comply with the provisions of this Policy.
